ANNUAL REPORT

Evang. Luth. Orphans' Home

AND

Asylum for the Aged and Infirm.

It is with feelings of gratitude and pleasure that the Board of Trustees present their report for the year closing April 1st 1893.

There were in the Orphanage April 1st, 1892 :

Admitted during the year:

71

Left during the year:

Mrs. A. C. Mueller, Matron;

Miss L. Kaessmann, Teacher of Main School ;

Miss M. Rohlf, Teacher of Kindergarten ;

Mr. Paul Bode, Gardener;

Mrs. F. Wilson, Cook.

There were in the Asylum April 1st, 1892:

Men 5—Women 26 = 31

Admitted during the year:

Women 2 = 33

Died during the year:

Men 2—Women 4 = 6

Leaving in the Asylum at present date = 27

There are employed in the Asylum:

Mrs. L. Pietzsch, Matron;

Miss D. Kahle, Assistant;

Miss M. Werner, Domestic;

Miss P. Loelliger, “

Rev. G. P. Mueller, Superintendent and Housefather.

These statistics fail to reveal the fact that the trying weather during the past winter brought an unusual amount of sickness and suffering into the Home and Asylum. Yes, we thank the kind Shepherd that He blessed the constant attendance and unwearying watchfulness of physician and nurses to such an extent that only one child, one of the tenderest and best, failed to survive the strain. The aged in the Asylum, enfeebled by age, have naturally little vitality, with which to resist the inroads of sickness and disease; hence the mortality is greater—Under the efficient management of the Superintendent and his assistants, in every department, the physical and spiritual interests of the helpless orphans and dependent aged ones have been constantly attended to and promoted. The various committees of the Board have been untiring in their efforts to raise the institutions to their highest degree of efficiency and development. Though much has been accomplished; yet more needs to be done—and only such as are in constant contact with the work can understand the difficulties that often hinder the best endeavors to lift this work of supremest charity to a level of the Church's expectations and desires. The Lady Visitors, through their committees, deserve great credit for the interest and devotion their untiring efforts have so constantly manifested. Their labors can never be over appreciated.

Miss L. Rohlf's has succeeded Miss B. Kaessmann as Teacher in the Kindergarten; and Mr. Joseph A. Bremer, 1427 N. Broad St., accepted his election as Treasurer, and has entered bond for the faithful discharge of his duties. The old building on the grounds has been fitted up for Hospital purposes in case of sickness or disease occurring that demand separation from the others. We praise God for His goodness and mercy. We thank all kind friends, and they are many indeed, for their encouragement and gifts; and earnestly ask, that they may ever remember our Orphans and our helpless aged ones in their prayers and charity. We hope to increase our facilities so as to be able to receive more children, and train them up under God, as an honor to the Church and a blessing to their day and generation.

The following constitute the Officers of the Board:

President, H. LEHMAN;
 Treasurer, JOS. A. BREMER;
 English Secretary, REV. C. F. HIRZEL;
 German Secretary, REV. F. WISCHAN;

The term of service of Jos. A. Bremer and F. Bauer expires with the next meeting of the Ministerium.

Yours respectfully

Rev. C. J. HIRZEL, Secretary.

34. Jahresbericht

des ev. luth. Waisenhauses und Asyls zu Germantown, Philadelphia.

Der Verwaltungsrat fühlt sich vor allem gedrungen, mit innigem Dank zu unserm lieben Vater im Himmel emporzublicken, und Ihn zu preisen für Seine mannigfache Gnade und Güte im verflossenen Jahre. Dank sei auch allen Freunden gesagt, die mit ihren Gaben der Liebe zur Versorgung der Anstalten beigetragen haben.

Die Zahl der Waisen am 1. April 1892 war 66
(nämlich 43 Knaben und 23 Mädchen).

Aufgenommen wurden im Jahre 3 Knaben und 2 Mädchen..... 5

Somit waren in der Anstalt..... 71

An ihre Freunde wurden entlassen 2 Knaben und 2 Mädchen... 4

Gestorben sind 2 Männer und 4 Frauen 6

Neu aufgenommen wurden 2 Frauen..... 2

Somit verbleiben 3 Männer und 24 Frauen..... 27

Hausvater der Anstalten ist Pastor G. Ph. Müller. Ihm zur Seite stehen:

Im Waisenhaus: Frau Pastor A. C. Müller, Hausmutter.

Frl. Luise Käpman, Oberlehrerin

Frl. Minna Kohns, Kindergarten

Paul Bode, Gärtner

Frau F. Wilson, Köchin.

Im Asyl: Frau Luise Biehsch, Matrone

Frl. Dor. Kahle, Gehilfin

Pauline Völlinger

Lydia Woerner.

Die Statistik offenbart aber nicht die Thatsache, daß der verflossene außerordentlich strenge Winter sich auch in unserem Waisenhaus und Altenheim recht fühlbar machte und viel Leiden und Krankheit verursachte. Doch von Herzen danken wir dem liebevollen Hirten, daß er den Dienst der Ärzte, und die treue und gewissenhafte Pflege der Kranken segnete, so daß nur ein Kind, ein liebes aber von Natur schwächliches Mädchen, starb. Die Alten im Asyl haben weniger Kraft, wegen ihres hohen Alter, den Krankheiten zu widerstehen, daher ist unter ihnen die Sterblichkeit größer.

Unter der fähigen und gewissenhaften Leitung des Hausvaters und seiner Gehülfen in jeder Abtheilung wurde für das leibliche und geistliche Wohl der Waisen und Alten stets gesorgt und dasselbe befördert. Die verschiedenen Komiteen des Verwaltungsrats sind unermüdllich gewesen in ihrem Bestreben, die Anstalten in jeder Beziehung zu heben. Obwohl schon vieles gethan und manches besser geworden ist, so bleibt doch noch vieles übrig, das gethan werden muß — aber nur diejenigen, welche mit der Aufgabe vertraut sind, kennen die Schwierigkeiten und die Hindernisse, die so oft die besten Versuche vereiteln, dieses schönste Werk der Liebe auf den Höhepunkt zu stellen, wo es den Erwartungen und dem Wunsch der Kirche gemäß stehen sollte. Die Frauenbesucherinnen verdienen hohe Anerkennung und Lob für das tiefe Interesse und die Hingabe, welche sie in ihrem Bestreben, das Wohl der Anstalten zu fördern, zeigten. Ihre Arbeit kann niemals überschätzt werden.

Frl. M. Rohlf's folgte dem Frl. B. Käßmann, als Lehrerin im Kindergartten und Herr Joseph A. Bremer, 1427 Nord Broad Straße, hat seine Wahl als Schatzmeister angenommen und stellte die nötige Bürgschaft für die treue Ausübung seines Amtes. Das alte Gebäude neben dem Waisenhaus ist in ein Krankenhaus umgewandelt, so daß Kranke, die abgesondert werden müssen, hier gepflegt werden können. Wir danken dem Herrn für Seine Güte und Liebe. Wir danken den vielen Freunden, und deren Zahl ist groß, für ihr Wohlwollen und Gaben, und bitten herzlich, sie mögen stets unserer Waisen und Alten in Liebe und in ihrem Gebet gedenken. Wir hoffen mehr Raum zu bekommen, um mehr Kinder aufnehmen zu können, so daß sie in der Furcht des Herrn erzogen eine Zierde unserer Kirche und ein Segen für ihre Mitmenschen werden.

Der Verwaltungsrat nimmt zu irgend einer Zeit von Pastoren und Gemeinden Einladungen an, um die Waisensache ihren Gemeinden vorzulegen.
